

Bathsheba: Sin, Death, and the Promise of Redemption

Matthew 1.1-6; 2 Samuel 11-12

Her name isn't actually in Matthew's genealogy of Jesus, but she is there – 'she who was the wife of Uriah.' Bathsheba was involved in the sin that stained the rule of Israel's greatest king, David, resulting in death. But repentance and grace gave forgiveness, and new life.

Lust, Sin, Death...and Forgiveness?!

- An unexpected pregnancy and a stubborn husband
- The Cover-up: Murder and marriage!
- A visit from a prophet: Confession and forgiveness
- One baby dies, another is born...leading to Messiah

Jesus Saves from Sin's Penalty and Power!

- It's right there in His name (Matthew 1.21)
- Can you sin too much or too badly to be saved?
- God's salvation: The gift that keeps on giving!

