Praying for Provision in a Day of Plenty

"Give us this day our daily bread..." Those familiar words from the Disciple's Prayer have been often misconstrued in our materialistic world. A closer look reveals that disciples recognize their dependence on God for each day's needs, and trust in Him completely.

Getting Our Cultural Bearings

How does living in affluent western society affect our spiritual lives?
What unique impediments to a life of discipleship do we face?

Three Key Concepts

- Give us…

  A disciple recognizes God is the source of all things.

- …this day…

  A disciple trusts in God daily, not just in a time of crisis.

- …our daily bread…

  A disciple depends on God for all his daily needs.

Notes