

Lessons for Life from Philippians

The Epistle of Philippians is a favorite for many Christians because it oozes with optimism! Against all odds, Paul sees a ‘silver lining’ to the ‘dark clouds’ of spiritual opposition surrounding him. What ‘lessons for life’ can we apply in our lives this coming year?

- Walk the walk!

Conduct yourself in a manner worthy of the gospel (1.27)

- Put others first!

Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit (2.3)

- Live for rewards!

Press on toward the goal for the prize (3.14)

- Make time to pray!

Be anxious for nothing...but pray! (4.6)

I will ‘walk the walk’ this year by...

I will ‘put others first’ this year by...

I will ‘live for rewards’ this year by...

I will ‘make time to pray’ this year by...

Live life better
Lessons from Philippians